

CITATIONS AND ADDITIONAL RESPONSES TO PUBLISHED WORKS

in accordance with section 5, subsection 2, letter f and section 13, subsection 2, letter g of the MU directive on Habilitation Procedures and Professor Appointment Procedures

Citation style selection should adhere to standard usage in a given field. Please list citations found in scholarly, pedagogical and/or other publications<sup>1</sup>. The extent of the citation listing is up to the applicant. The applicant decides to list or not to list self-citations<sup>2</sup> and must specify this decision in the Annex 6. In both cases, the applicant must indicate the total number of citations and the share of self-citations in % in the Annex 7. Each citation may be listed no more than once<sup>3</sup>.

A. Citations of scholarly and artistic works by the applicant listed in Annex No. 5

The applicant may replace the list of citations A with

- a listing from a relevant international database<sup>4</sup>,

<sup>3</sup> In case of more citations in the same citation source, please list them in one bibliographic record. In case a citation corresponds to multiple categories, please list it only once.

<sup>4</sup> Should the applicant wish to list citations not included in a database as part of the procedure (e.g. in Annex 7), he/she must list these citations using the supplied template.

<sup>5</sup> The preparation of such an analysis should be agreed in advance with the office in question.
